It's clear, culture matters, after all, we will spend about 1/3 of our lives in the workplace – it ought to be a place we enjoy. Unfortunately, culture can be hard to talk about.

Let's change that!

During this fun, facilitated discussion webinar, we are going to tackle some big questions around culture and learn from each other, our experiences, and share our best practices.

Bring the drink of your choice and let's talk culture together!

Wednesday, June 17
